Index 1971

Aptheker, Herbert—Southerners on Southern History, Feb., 50; A Fabulous Black Woman, Mar., 54; Blaming the Victim, April, 48; The Senator With a Conscience, June, 50; Cold-War Liars and New Historians, Aug., 89; Racism and Counter-Revolution, Sept., 54; Bangla Desh: A New Nation Is Born, Oct., 44; Black Studies and U.S. History, Dec., 50.

Beitz, Ursula (Gaylord C. Leroy and)—Socialist Humanism and Second Culture, April, 19.

Bell, Patricia—The United States and Puerto Rico, Mar., 61.

Bert, Erik—The Doctrine of Common Essence, Oct., 32.

Biryukova, Alexandra—Soviet Women: Creative Labor and Equality, Mar., 37.

Brutents, K.—Neo-Colonialism and its Socio-Economic Strategy, Sept., 12.

Buxenbaum, Alva—Marxism and the Woman Question Today, Mar., 6; The Statement on Angela Davis: A Clarification, May, 65; A Reply to Linda Popper, Aug., 94.

Carroll, Esther—Communist Women—The Human Side, June, 65.

Communist Party of New Jersey (National Labor Commission, CPUSA and)—The Lessons of the Newark Teachers' Strike, Oct., 8.

Dennis, Peggy—An American Communist in the Phillipines, Mar., 58; On Independent Political Action, Dec., 41.

Edelman, Judy—Young Workers: A Force for Change, Nov., 13.

Editorial Comment—Our Fiftieth Year, Jan., 1; International Women's Day, Mar., 1; The Paris Commune: One Hundred Years Later, Mar., 3; Happy Birthday, Comrade Winston!, April, 1; The Spring Offensive, April, 4; The Pentagon Papers, Aug., 1; Nixon's Peking Visit: What Does It Mean?, Sept., 5; The Attica Massacre, Oct., 1.

Ellis, Gordon—Steigerwald on the Frankfort School, April, 54.

Ellis, Ray—Marxism and Electoral Politics, June, 54; Chemical and Biological Warfare, Nov., 61.

Faría, Jesús (and Guillermo García Ponce—In Defense of Leninist Principles—The Venezuelan Party Congress, June, 47.

Foster, William Z.—The Paris Commune, April 8.

Hall, Gus—The 1970 Elections, Jan., 9; William Z. Foster: A Tribute, Feb., 33; Crisis in U.S. Foreign Policy, May, 3; U.S. Imperialism—Looking for "Dividends," June, 14; Capitalism in Crisis and the Fight for Peace, Aug., 26.

Hincker, Francois—Roger Garaudy and the French Communist Party, April, 40.

Hudson, Hosea—Black Workers and the Class Struggle: Birmingham 1931, Feb., 25.

Hallinan, Matthew, A New Step Toward Communism—24th Congress, CPSU, June, 33.

Harris, Joseph—A Criticism of West, Nov., 59.

Heisler, Robert—On Criticism of Marcuse, April, 59.

Jackson, James E.—About Three Philosophers: Frederick Engels, Herbert Marcuse, Angela Davis, Jan., 23; All Power to the Communist Party of Venezuela, May, 16; To the Communist Party of India, Dec., 34.

Kashtan, William—Repression in Canada, Trudeau Style, Mar., 41.

Johnson, Oakley C.—"Journey Into Revolution"—A Newsman's Report, Mar., 61.

Johnson, Arnold—Comment on Ray Ellis' Article, June, 63.

Leroy, Gaylord C.—Counter-Culture of the '60s, Sept., 45; (and Ursula Beitz), Socialist Humanism and Second Culture, April, 19.

Lightfoot, Claude—"We Charge Genocide": An Historic Document, Feb., 60; The Haitian and Cuban Revolutions—A Contrast, June, 20; The Roots and History of Racism, Dec., 1.

Lumer, Dorothy—The Black Woman, Mar., 23.

Index 1971

Aptheker, Herbert—Southerners on Southern History, Feb., 50; A Fabulous Black Woman, Mar., 54; Blaming the Victim, April, 48; The Senator With a Conscience, June, 50; Cold-War Liars and New Historians, Aug., 89; Racism and Counter-Revolution, Sept., 54; Bangla Desh: A New Nation Is Born, Oct., 44; Black Studies and U.S. History, Dec., 50.

Beitz, Ursula (Gaylord C. Leroy and)—Socialist Humanism and Second Culture, April, 19.

Bell, Patricia—The United States and Puerto Rico, Mar., 61.

Bert, Erik—The Doctrine of Common Essence, Oct., 32.

Biryukova, Alexandra—Soviet Women: Creative Labor and Equality, Mar., 37.

Brutents, K.—Neo-Colonialism and its Socio-Economic Strategy, Sept., 12.

Buxenbaum, Alva—Marxism and the Woman Question Today, Mar., 6; The Statement on Angela Davis: A Clarification, May, 65; A Reply to Linda Popper, Aug., 94.

Carroll, Esther—Communist Women—The Human Side, June, 65.

Communist Party of New Jersey (National Labor Commission, CPUSA and)—The Lessons of the Newark Teachers' Strike, Oct., 8.

Dennis, Peggy—An American Communist in the Phillipines, Mar., 58; On Independent Political Action, Dec., 41.

Edelman, Judy—Young Workers: A Force for Change, Nov., 13.

Editorial Comment—Our Fiftieth Year, Jan., 1; International Women's Day, Mar., 1; The Paris Commune: One Hundred Years Later, Mar., 3; Happy Birthday, Comrade Winston!, April, 1; The Spring Offensive, April, 4; The Pentagon Papers, Aug., 1; Nixon's Peking Visit: What Does It Mean?, Sept., 5; The Attica Massacre, Oct., 1.

Ellis, Gordon—Steigerwald on the Frankfort School, April, 54.

Ellis, Ray—Marxism and Electoral Politics, June, 54; Chemical and Biological Warfare, Nov., 61.

Faría, Jesús (and Guillermo García Ponce—In Defense of Leninist Principles—The Venezuelan Party Congress, June, 47.

Foster, William Z.—The Paris Commune, April 8.

Hall, Gus—The 1970 Elections, Jan., 9; William Z. Foster: A Tribute, Feb., 33; Crisis in U.S. Foreign Policy, May, 3; U.S. Imperialism—Looking for "Dividends," June, 14; Capitalism in Crisis and the Fight for Peace, Aug., 26.

Hincker, Francois—Roger Garaudy and the French Communist Party, April, 40.

Hudson, Hosea—Black Workers and the Class Struggle: Birmingham 1931, Feb., 25.

Hallinan, Matthew, A New Step Toward Communism—24th Congress, CPSU, June, 33.

Harris, Joseph—A Criticism of West, Nov., 59.

Heisler, Robert—On Criticism of Marcuse, April, 59.

Jackson, James E.—About Three Philosophers: Frederick Engels, Herbert Marcuse, Angela Davis, Jan., 23; All Power to the Communist Party of Venezuela, May, 16; To the Communist Party of India, Dec., 34.

Kashtan, William—Repression in Canada, Trudeau Style, Mar., 41.

Johnson, Oakley C.—"Journey Into Revolution"—A Newsman's Report, Mar., 61.

Johnson, Arnold—Comment on Ray Ellis' Article, June, 63.

Leroy, Gaylord C.—Counter-Culture of the '60s, Sept., 45; (and Ursula Beitz), Socialist Humanism and Second Culture, April, 19.

Lightfoot, Claude—"We Charge Genocide": An Historic Document, Feb., 60; The Haitian and Cuban Revolutions—A Contrast, June, 20; The Roots and History of Racism, Dec., 1.

Lumer, Dorothy—The Black Woman, Mar., 23.

Lumer, Hyman—The Reactionary Role of Zionism, July, 11, Aug., 39; The Man Who Cried Genocide, Dec., 61.
Martin, Betty—On Male Supremacy, Oct., 55.
Mason, Daniel—Neo-Colonialism: A Rejoinder, Jan., 56; Colodny on Spain, Sept., 63; The Problem of Unemployment, Nov., 26, Dec., 14.
Monteiro, Tony—Trotskyism: Racist Voice in the Left, July, 1971.
Morris, George—Labor and Politics: The Fight for Independence, Nov., 36.
National Labor Commission, CPUSA (and Communist Party of New Jersey)—The Lessons of the Newark Teachers' Strike, Oct., 8.
National Women's Commission, CPUSA—Angela Davis, Mar., 4.
North, Joseph—Communist Women Leaders, Mar., 29; The Press—"Voluntary Arm of Established Power," Aug., 70.
Ojeda, Felix—Struggles in Puerto Rico, Jan., 47.
Old Reader—On Revolutionary Transition, Sept., 61; Further on the Nixon-Mao Meeting, Oct., 58.
Padilla, L.—The Political Events in Bolivia, Dec., 23.
O'Riordan, Michael—Class and National Struggles in Ireland, April, 30.
Patterson, William L.—The Family From Which I Came, Feb., 14.
Pittman, John—Indochina's 25-Year Struggle Against U.S. Imperialism, Feb., 1.
Political Committee, CPUSA—Resolution on Henry Winston's 60th Birthday, May, 1; The U.S. Economy—A Program of Struggle, May, 53; Nixon's Economic Statement, Sept., 1.
Pomeroy, William J.—Neo-Colonialism: A Reply to Criticism, Jan., 51; A Foreign Policy of Skullduggery, April, 63.
Ponce, Guillermo García (Jesús Faría and)—In Defense of Leninist Principles—The Venezuelan Party Congress, June, 47.
Popper, Linda—The Centrality of Male Supremacy, July, 58.
Perlo, Victor—The Dollar Crisis, July, 22.
A. R.—An Excellent Issue, May, 64.
Raja, C. Unni—Realignment of Political Forces in India, Aug., 80.
Reynolds, Joseph—Neo-Freudianism, Oct., 17.
Proctor, Roscoe (and Art Shields)—The General Motors Strike, Jan., 35.
Ristorucci, Carmen—"Sexual Politics," Jan., 59.
Rubin, Daniel—The Communist Party and the Trade Unions, Nov., 49.
Shields, Art—A Great Working-Class Leader, Feb., 38; The Battle of Logan County, 1921 . . . and a Postscript, 50 Years Later, Sept., 27; (Roscoe Proctor and), The General Motors Strike, Jan., 35.
Smith, Betty M.—The Struggle for Women's Equality and the Working Class, Mar., 15.
Steigerwald, Robert—A Reply to Ellis, April, 56.
Steinmetz, Harry—Imperialist Deceit Exposed, Nov., 64.
Stevens, José—Party Work in Harlem., Sept., 37.
Tucker, Ellen—"Scientific" Racism, Dec., 58.
U.E. Representative—Wages of G.E. Women Workers—A Correction, June, 65.
West, James—The Rank-and File Movements, May, 23; The World Class Struggle, Oct., 61; The Rank and File in Motion, Nov., 1; Author's Reply, Nov., 60.
Weinstone, William—"Labor Radical"—An Insider's Story of the CIO, May, 40.
Williamson, John—The British Road to Socialism, July, 50.
Winston, Fern—The Family—Is It Obsolete?, Aug., 56.
Winston, Henry—The Meaning of San Rafael, June, 1; Women's Liberation: A Class Approach, July, 1; The Crisis of the Black Panther Party, Aug., 1.